

Aikido Seminar

February 1st 2014

WITH

Benjamin Pincus
Shidojin 6th Dan

Chief Instructor, Aikido of Champlain Valley
Burlington, Vermont

Pincus Sensei brings over 30 years of aikido experience to his classes. He studied under several direct students of O Sensei, beginning with the late Kanai Sensei (8th dan) in 1982. During his undergraduate years, he apprenticed with the late Paul Sylvain Sensei (6th dan) and Yamada Sensei (8th dan). At New York Aikikai, he also studied under the late Sugano Sensei (8th dan) and became a student of Donovan Waite Sensei (7th dan). Seeking to deepen his understanding of Aikido after deciding to become an Aikido teacher, he studied in San Diego with Chiba Sensei (8th dan) in a kenshusei (intensive instructor's training) program.
