

KIRCHBERG MONASTERY

The beautiful setting of Kloster Kirchberg is found at the edge of The Black Forest, less than 70 km from Stuttgart.

With Eran Junryu Vardi Roshi

Junryu

Roshi Eran Junryu Vardi is a Zen master and an ordained Zen priest, a dharma successor of Roshi Paul Genki Kahn. Roshi Junryu's Zendo is in New Jersey, where he lives with his family. He is also a co-director of the Aikido-Zen training programme and a member of the board of directors at Zen Garland Order, where he himself studied.

Sesshin

Sesshin means in Japanese "to touch the essence"

"We are willingly stepping into a challenging period, equipped only with what we are, rather than what we bring in. It is a precious time to become deeply intimate with who YOU are. Cherish this limited time and practice diligently."

Roshi Junryu

For more information visit us or write to us at www.zen-buddhismus-stuttgart.de

mcgough@gmx.net